3 From where do we receive data?

We receive information primarily from the following sources: yourself, population register, authorities, credit information companies, contact information service providers and other similar reliable sources.

For the purposes described in this privacy notice, personal data may also be collected and updated from publicly available sources and based on information received from authorities or other third parties within the limits of the applicable laws and regulations. Such updating of data is performed manually or by automated means.

4 To whom do we disclose data, and do we transfer data outside of EU or EEA?

Personal data only be disclosed within the limits permitted and required by the applicable legislation. Such data recipients include group companies, partners participating in the provision of services or products, and financial and legal consultants.

We use subcontractors that process personal data on our behalf. We have outsourced IT-management to an external service provider, on whose administrated and secured server the personal data is stored.

We have necessary data processing agreements in place with our subcontractors. We cannot name all subcontractors, for example due to projects in the development phase, so we have opted to name only types of subcontractors.

In general, we do not transfer personal data outside the EU/EEA. Service providers responsible for IT management may, in exceptional circumstances, have access to the data system from outside the EU/EEA for the purpose of providing technical support. In such a case, data transfers outside the EU/EEA are carried out in compliance with standard clauses and data protection measures approved by the EU Commission.

5 How do we protect the data and how long do we store them?

Only those of our employees, who on behalf of their work are entitled to process customer data, are entitled to use the system containing personal data. Each user has a personal username and password to the system. The data is collected into databases that are protected by firewalls, passwords and other technical measures. The databases and their backup copies are in locked premises and can be accessed only by certain pre-designated persons.

We store data about our customers and partners only for as long as necessary, taking into account the duration of the customer relationship or contractual relationship as well as possible warranty periods and time limits for legal action.

We estimate regularly the need for data storage taking into account the applicable legislation. In addition, we take care of such reasonable actions that ensure no incompatible, outdated or inaccurate personal data is stored in the register taking into account the purpose of the processing. We correct or erase such data without delay.

6 What are your rights as a data subject?

You have the right to inspect the personal data stored in the register concerning yourself and the right to demand rectification or erasure of the data.

Insofar as the processing is based on consent, you also have the right to withdraw or change your consent. Withdrawing your consent does not affect the lawfulness of processing before the withdrawal of the consent.

You have the right to object or to demand restriction of the processing of your data and to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority.

On grounds relating to your particular situation you also have the right to object other processing activities when the legal basis of processing is legitimate interest. In connection with your request, you shall identify the specific situation, based on which you object to the processing. We can refuse the request of objection only on legal grounds.

7 Who can you be in contact with?

All contacts and requests concerning this privacy policy shall be submitted in writing or in person to the contact point mentioned in section one (1).
